A BILL

FOR AN ACT TO REPEAL SECTION 2803 OF THE CODE OF 1873, AND TO ENACT A SUBSTITUTE THEREFOR.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That Section 2803 of the Code of 1873 be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following section be and is hereby enacted as a substitute therefor, viz :

Sec. 2803. When ten jurors have agreed upon and signed a verdict the jury must be conducted into court, their names called by the clerk, and the verdict thus rendered and signed shall be read by the clerk to the jury, and an inquiry made of those who have thus signed the verdict, whether it is their verdict. If any juror who has signed the verdict disagrees, the jury must be sent out again, but if no disagreement is expressed by any juror who has signed the verdict, such verdict so signed and returned shall be complete and the jury discharged from the case. If all the jury agree upon a verdict, one of their number shall sign it as foreman. Either party to the case may require the jury to be polled.
